1 Policy Summary

This privacy policy contains the principles by which Council manages personal information it collects. It is part of the framework put in place by the Council to protect the privacy of personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles set out in the Information Act (NT) ("the Act").

2 Policy Objectives

Compliance with statutory requirements of the Local Government Act and the principles set out in the Information Act for the privacy of personal information.

3 Background

Tiwi Islands Regional Council collects, and uses, personal information about individuals to enable it to carry out its functions under the Local Government Act. Under certain circumstances it may disclose this information to third parties. It also has responsibility to keep information securely so as to protect the privacy of individuals. Sub-Section 130(3) of the Local Government Act requires the Council to adopt a 'Privacy' Policy.

4 Policy Statement

Tiwi Islands Regional Council has adopted the following statement in accordance with its responsibilities under the Information Act:

"Tiwi Islands Regional Council ("the Council") is committed to protecting your privacy. We understand that it is important to protect your personal information".

Tiwi Islands Regional Council

This Policy contains the key principles for management of the personal information it collects from you. The policy aims to protect the privacy of your personal information in accordance with the Information Privacy Principles set out in the Information Act (NT) ("the Act").

Personal Information

Personal information is defined as "Council information from which a person's identity is apparent or is reasonably able to be ascertained."

Collection

- The Council collects the personal information that it needs to carry out its functions and activities, including its statutory functions under the Local Government Act.

- The Council may also collate statistical information from the personal information it collects. This information may be used by Council and other government bodies to assist in the provision of appropriate services and facilities. Once this kind of information is collected, it will be de-identified so that any compilation or publication of those statistics will not reveal your identity.

- The Council may collect your personal information in a number of ways, including:
 - directly from you in documents such as application forms, statutory declarations, or by verbal or written correspondence; and
 - from third parties such as government bodies.

Use and Disclosure

The Council may use your personal information in a number of ways, including:

- to carry out the Council's functions, such as the maintenance of the assessment record (rates) and other records of a regional council nature.
- to provide you with information about the Council's services.
- to determine and provide appropriate services and facilities.
- to administer and manage processes such as applications for permits, animal ownership, billing and collection of levies and charges, and development proposals.
- to administer and make enquiries on personnel and recruitment matters.

The Council will take reasonable steps to ensure that your personal information is not disclosed to third parties except in certain circumstances, including where:

Tiwi Islands Regional Council

- you have consented to the release.
- the Council is authorised or required by law or regulatory requirements to disclose the information to, for example, a law enforcement agency.
- the information is disclosed in accordance with section 152(4) of the Local Government Act, which requires Council to make the assessment record available for inspection by any member of the public. The assessment record includes rate payer information such as the name and address of the owner or principal ratepayer, a brief description of the land, its assessed value and the use of the land if subject to a differential rate.
- the information is provided to a third party which provides services to the Council, in which case the Council will endeavour to ensure that the service provider agrees to preserve the confidentiality of your personal information.
- the circumstances where the Council is not prohibited from disclosing the information, as described in the Act.

Where possible, we will inform you, at or before the time of collecting your personal information, of the third parties that we intend to disclose your personal information to.

Prior to disclosing any of your personal information, we will take all reasonable steps to satisfy ourselves that the third party is committed to protecting your personal information and you have consented to us doing so.

Security of Information

The Council will take reasonable steps to protect the personal information it holds from misuse and loss and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

Your personal information is stored in a secure place in the Council department or section that uses that information. Your personal information may also be stored by the Council in electronic form, which is protected from unauthorised access by a password system. Council staff have access to your personal information only to the extent that is required for them to carry out their duties.

Access to Your Information

If you make a written request to us for access to the personal information the Council holds about you, the Council will provide you with access to that information, unless there is an applicable exception under the IPPs.

We may charge you a reasonable fee for providing you with access to the information.
